We are glad to report that great progress is being made in the Boy Scout order, under the efficient leadership of the Rev. Mr. W. A. Buteman has turned over farming operations to his sons Kenneth and Clarence who have unloaded this week a fine 16x30 Oil Pull Rumely Tractor through Swennumson & Co. who are the local Agents.

Boys Carrying Firearms

All parents and guardians would be well advised, to see that their boys do not carry firearms, except under proper Adult Instructors and supervisors, on account of the great danger to themselves and the Public at large. Quite a few cases have lately occurred where small boys have been carrying guns and firing them promiscuously right in the Town limits and even shooting into Dwelling houses. It is not safe to allow any boy to carry deadly weapons under 18 or 21 years of age, as the boys themselves do not realize the danger and it is up to the older people to take this matter up now before any serious accidents happen, action later on may be too late. Urgent action is needed now.

A pretty scene was witnessed at the L.J. Ranch last Friday, when in the morning some twenty five head of antelope, trooped down to the river to drink, although Bruce Marsden was busy doing his chores on the opposite shore they evidently were not alarmed. The above is now a daily occurrence. It is seldom that one sees a number of these very beautiful creatures now-a-days, and then only on the large company owned lands and grazing leases and to have them almost close to town seems incredible never the less they are to be seen daily on the range opposite Mr. Marsden's ranch buildings by the river.

Mr. W. J. Little had a valuable Shorthorn heifer mire down in a scaphie in his pasture fortunately however, the animals plight was discovered. After considerable trouble and the assistance of Tommy Spry with his team she was released from her predicament, unharmed.

We are glad to note that the Flu is being eradicated from our town and countryside, and all sincerely hope that it will be stamped out entirely.

Homer Simpson of Rosemont is at present employed by Joe Haer of Pleasant View Farm.

We are glad to hear of Mrs. Baer's recovery from her recent sickness.

Mr. Chas. Thompson has, by private sale disposed of his driving team to John Jacobson, at a very good figure.

Since last week a scrap of news has drifted in, to the effect that our neighbours Mr. Kingsley Holcroft has sold his entire farm. Kingsley evidently has had sufficient business to allow him to retire like a real gentleman. We hope so any way.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Werts were Sunday visitors to Mr. and Mrs. Prod.

Mr. A. E. Adair having about completed the cropping of his house farm, by the river, has started work on the quarter he acquired of Andy Lindquist who is now stock raising in Northern Montana.

Reuel Evans of Harryhouse Farm was a visitor on Sunday to Slim Marsden at the river.

Rain has been threatening us off and on we call it hand, for a down-pour is again needed by this thirsty land.

We are sorry to hear of Mr. Minnie's departure from the managing of the U.G.G. Elevator in Bow Island, while in these parts he made many friends who wish him every success, there will probably be a few "belly laments" on his departure, in this country north east.

We are glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parker late of Calgary back in our midst again, we wish them much prosperity this season and a bountiful harvest. It is coming to you Freddy, Old Boy.

EDITORIAL

The Future of the Small Town

Much is said and written these days about the small town and its future. In particular, attention is being devoted to present and future prospects of the town and village retail merchant in the face of the increasing competition afforded by the large retail houses in big cities. Many of these local merchants take a gloomy view, and are somewhat inclined to blame the farmers for lack of loyalty to those who, their claim, have extended credit and carried them over bad years, who buy their butter and eggs, and are ever ready to render them small services, whereas the city houses insist on cash in advance and render no local service to them whatever.

The future of the small town or village is inseparable from the prosperity of their retail merchants. If the retail merchant goes, it will not be long before the doctor, lawyer, banker, newspaper, hotelman, and others follow suit, and with the passing of the "local" centre the farmer would quickly discover he was sustained a loss, the value of which he had not fully appreciated until too late.

Like every other matter, there are two sides to this question, and it is in the interests of all that both sides should be studied. The town and the local merchant have certain responsibilities towards the farmers of their district, and the farmers have a certain duty towards their towns. An effort should be made to determine what these duties are and to discharge them.

First of all, the town should be made a real community centre and the necessary facilities provided to make it an attractive meeting place for the farmers of the surrounding district and their wives and families. Too frequently, it is to be feared, farmers are rather given an impression that all the town cares about them is the money they have to spend. On the other hand, the farmer is apt to compare the lower prices quoted by the city houses with the local merchant's prices without giving heed to anything else.

When the farmer buys from a city house he is compelled to pay cash in advance, nor has he the privilege of first inspecting the goods he purchases. When he buys from the local town merchant he thoroughly examines the goods in advance of purchase, and frequently buys on credit, and would even receive being asked to pay cash. Yet it is a well known fact that goods cannot be sold as cheaply on credit as for cash.

The local merchant is immediately at hand for every small purchase and in all emergencies, the city house is far away. The average farmer expects, and receives, accommodation from the local merchant when he needs it, and relies on him to take credit of his produce in exchange for goods, but he would never think of taking the city house for similar accommodation and assistance, and would not get it if he did ask for it.

This situation has existed for years, yet the farmer is educated off to cash payment to the city house. Why, therefore, should the local merchant not adopt the same method, and, as one writer puts it, say "I'm sorry I've been on this spot serving you for years. I've given you many favors. But you make your most important purchases by mail—pay cash in advance. Now, surely, it is only fair that you pay me cash in advance also for the small purchases you now make here. Every time I pay cash the jobber gives me a discount of 2 to 3 per cent. Each year I must make also 5 per cent for prepayment of my bills. You pay me cash and I'll turn this advantage over to you. Both of us will be better off, and the discrepancy between city house prices and those of the local merchant would largely disappear.

The local town or village should do its part. It should identify itself more with the lives of the farmers upon whose whose trade it exists. It should provide an attractive restaurant where the farmer's wife and babies can get out of the cold, or wet, or hot sun for the hour or two they are in town. It should be equipped so that the mother can care for the children and tidy up and refresh herself after a long drive in the wind and dust, and wet and cold. It should have facilities where she can make a cup of tea or coffee, and some books or magazines to read. Farmers and their families should be welcomed and encouraged to take an active part in the social life of the town. In a word, the farmers and their families should be made to feel that they are welcome for themselves and quite apart from the money they have to spend.

The community aspect of the problem of the small town is easily the most important one. Where city houses called upon to support every public enterprise in all the towns in which they sell goods as the retailers do, and are expected to do, a considerable hole would be made in their profits, and their increased local expenses would result in increased selling prices. What the local merchant does for his community in these days should not be overlooked.

The more the city house is patronized, the more difficult it will be to build up a bright, attractive, prosperous local community; the more the town merchants are patronized, the better service they will be able to render, the greater variety and volume of stocks they can carry, the closer they can make their prices because the overhead charges of conducting the business are less in proportion to the volume of business done.

This is an age of co-operation, and the local town merchant should make it a practice to loyally co-operate the one with the other. Both have everything to gain and nothing to lose by such action.

DISEASE COMES

THROUGH THE BLOOD

To Cure Common Ailments the Blood Must Be Made Rich and Clean. Nearly all the common diseases that afflict mankind are caused by bad blood. The severity of the trouble depends upon the nature of the impurities. Bad blood is the cause of headaches and backaches, lumbago and rheumatism, debility, nervousness, neuritis, sciatica and other nerve troubles. It is the cause of skin diseases, neuralgia, sciatica and other nerve troubles. It is the cause of skin diseases, neuralgia, sciatica and other nerve troubles.

It is only at the end of June last that a start was made with the work of the new building, and the lack of skilled labor, the 400 acres which constitute the park, were cleared and drained. Meanwhile the foundations for the first hangar were laid and it has been completed for some time. It is divided into three compartments, each 150 feet wide. The foundations of a second and larger hangar were laid, but the work was suspended when the armistice was signed. The administration offices, men's rooms, and sleeping quarters for the 120 men, who will form the mechanical staff, are amply approaching completion. Water has been brought from Lough Neagh, a distance of two miles, and a railway line, long and connecting with the Great Northern (Ireland) system, encircles the park. London's university, Western, has been given an aeroplane which will be kept at the university, and now word has been received that the British war mission in the United States has shipped to the university a Le Rhone 9-cylinder, 110 horsepower rotary engine. The university will doubtless be proud to own it, as it was the power plant of one of the famous Bristol-Sopwith machines, which enabled the allies to maintain the supremacy of the air in 1916 and 1917. Professors of the university are enthusiastically in favor of adding aeroplaning to the curriculum of the college.

Aviation Grounds In Ireland Are Superb

Admitted by Experts to Be One of Best in United Kingdom

Belfast, Ireland, by reason of its geographical position, will play an important part in the development of travelling by airship. There is now being built at Belfast, in Alderney, County Antrim, a magnificent airfield, which will probably be one of the stations for the trans-Atlantic flight and center on the Ulster coast. The airfield will be one of the best for the expected postal service and pleasure aerial cruises. Twelve months ago the park, which is 25 miles from Belfast by rail, was agricultural land; today it is admitted by experts, who have inspected it, to be one of the best aviation grounds in the United Kingdom.

It was only at the end of June last that a start was made with the work of the new building, and the lack of skilled labor, the 400 acres which constitute the park, were cleared and drained. Fruit Prospects Excellent

Vancouver, B.C. — From all sections of the Okanagan and southern Similkameen valleys come reports of excellent fruit prospects for 1919. The setting of fruit buds this spring gives an indication of a gain in fruit production of about 50 per cent. over 1918, according to reports which have reached Fruit Inspector Hunter, Penticton. Providing that frost keeps away, and spring rains early enough, conditions are up to the mark, there is no reason why this year should not be far the best in the history of the district, he says.

Hoist German Flag
Colors Raised by Civilians in Defense of Allies

Colbenz. — Enthusiasm by prospects of peace and newspaper reports that the German peace delegates had passed the Cologne en route to Versailles, five Cologne civilians hoisted German flags. The colors fluttered from their staffs only a short while, all having been taken down by the military police, excepting in one case, almost as soon as they appeared. A crowd of 200 soldiers on leave assembled in the street near a downtown building where a large German flag was flying, but a military policeman relieved the situation by hauling down the flag himself.

FROM RAW MATERIAL TO FINISHED PRODUCT

Compelling Americans to Spend Money in Canada Instead of Taking it Out

The United States Steel Corporation will establish a $20,000,000 plant in Sandwich, Ont. The Canadian Customs Tariff is forcing the corporation to spend money in Canada instead of taking it out.

If Free Trade between Canada and the United States existed, the Steel Company would build the $20,000,000 plant in the United States, would attract our raw material and workmen to that plant, would transform the raw material into finished products, which would be shipped into Canada, and would retain all the profits connected with the various processes of manufacture.

Forced across the line by the duty, the Company will spend $20,000,000 in Canada, will bring to Canada many skilled workmen with their families, will give employment to hundreds of Canadians, will change Sandwich from a village to a city, will create a market for the produce of the surrounding farmers, and will sell "Made-in-Canada" goods to Canadian consumers.

During the seven months ending with October, 1912, Canada imported for consumption iron and steel manufactures to the value of $7,465,102, of which $6,604,285 worth came from the United States. This was an increase of $2,360,000 over the seven months ending with October, 1911. Instead of advocating a reduction of duties on steel and iron manufactures, Free Traders should endeavor to persuade foreign companies to establish more branches in Canada.

EDMONTON'S GROWTH

A Stable Trade Policy Has Caused All-Round Development

Western Canadian industrial centres are rapidly coming to their own under the aegis of the industrial policy of moderate protection which stimulates the creation of manufacturing establishments on western as well as eastern Canadian soil.

Commercial, industrial and financial enterprises in Edmonton made great gains in 1912, the largest in the city history, than in any two years previously, according to statistics compiled by H. Milton Morfin, retiring president of the Edmonton Board of Trade.

There is every indication that proportionate gains will be made this year. The percentages of increase for 1912 over 1911 are as follows: Building, 250; general business, 125; costume house returns, 115; bank clearings, 82; manufacturing, 75; postage stamp sales, 40. Permits for 2,611 dwellings, 101 warehouses, 117 stores, 29 office buildings, 10 factories, 11 apartment houses, 15 schools, four theatres and four hotels, involving a total expenditure of $14,463,195, were issued in 1912. Mr. Morfin said, adding:

"Fourteen wholesale firms began business during 1912, giving a total of 68 now maintaining warehouses and carrying stocks. We also have 20 industrial establishments, paying $46,534 a week to 2,222 employees. Several concerns are building, and expect to begin operations this spring. The railroads operating in Edmonton have monthly payrolls of $100,000. This is exclusive of the hundreds of thousands of dollars paid by contractors. The bank clearings amounted to $220,737,622, as against $121,428,394 in 1911 and $71,623,116 in 1910."

Cars, Carriages	1,000,000	24,000,000
Automobiles	1,000,000 (10 months)	$21,000,000 (10 months)

It will be seen from the above list that most of these products are made in Canada and the figures afford food for reflection as to whether or not it is wise for a young country like Canada to be sending out of the country such vast sums of money for goods which under favorable conditions should be made in this country.

Most Unsatisfactory

Four old Aunt Elizabeths was a little boy to rheumatism, and was consulting her nephew, a newly-dedicated doctor, as to what she had better do. She was a wealthy old lady, and her loving nephew was most anxious to make a good impression.

"You should try an electric iron," said the nephew. "Electricity is the life, you know, and it is especially good in overcoming your complaint." "Now, George, don't you try your new-fangled ideas on me, because I won't have it. Electricity, indeed! What nonsense! You know I'm well that I was struck by lightning only a few months ago, and it has done me a bit of good!"

Do You Know?

Tommy lifted his hand and ran up to the teacher.

"Please, Miss Jones," he exclaimed, "If a bee got on a nettle would the bee sting the nettle or would the nettle sting the bee?"

Running to Seed

Newly wed, very happy, utterly inexperienced, and really rather ignorant—they were all these things. And they had a new house, with a little garden at the back of which—thorough settler of them knew much of matters horticultural—they were both extraordinarily proud.

"Dolly," he cried, bursting into the house one afternoon, "there's a nice asparagus just ready for eating. Come! You shall gather the little fruits from our garden."

There was nothing she would like to have done more. But alas! asparagus gathering was not one of her strong points. In fact, she didn't even know what the stuff looked like in its natural state. So, anxious not to "give herself away," she decided to be cautious.

"No, John," she said, "you'd better do the cutting. You're taller than I am. I'll hold the ladder!"

Indigestion Hiccups
Sandy was being entertained at a Subo-restaurant, London, and the dinner consisted of rich and fanciful dishes.

"Ah!" replied Sandy, thoughtfully, "I think I'll try indigestion!"

First Step Towards Signing of Peace

Versailles. — In a session beginning at 3:10 o'clock and lasting barely five minutes, the German plenipotentiaries to the peace conference presented their credentials.

It was the first step in the peace negotiations.

The German credentials were presented to representatives of the allies and the United States.

Pole and almost fainting from emotion, Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the German secretary and head of the peace delegation, sat through what evidently was one of the bitterest moments of his life. He was barely able to sustain himself on his feet through the brief ceremony, and reached the waiting automobile which had brought him to the gathering.

The meeting took place in the room of the Trianon Hotel, previously used for the sessions of the supreme military council. Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, on entering, was accompanied by Herr Landsberg, Professor Schuchman, and other delegates, and waiting for him the allied representatives were grouped around Jules Cambon, former French ambassador at Berlin, who is chairman of the commission. Other members of the allied party included Lord Harding, Great Britain's ambassador at Matsuy, Japan; and Henry White of the United States.

M. Cambon immediately addressed Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, stating that he was chairman of the commission entrusted by the allied powers to receive and examine the credentials of the German delegates as the first step in a conference which it was expected would lead to peace.

"Here are ours," said M. Cambon, extending, as he spoke, the formal credentials of the allied commission as plenipotentiaries to the meeting. Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau surrendered the German credentials with even less of a formal address, his mission being too great to enable him to deliver an extended discourse.

After these brief ceremonies, the German delegates were seated at a long table, walking a few steps to the cars in waiting. They were followed immediately by the allied representatives. The whole ceremony was over by 2:30 o'clock. The allied delegates then rode to the Chateau to inspect the Hall of Mirrors, where the treaty will be signed and eventually returned to the hotel for tea.

Chinese Being Deported

Victoria. — The record for deportation of Chinese from this port to China has been broken. On the steamer Canada Maru 36 Chinese were deported to their native land after they had failed to enter Canada as would-be college students. Examination of the Oriental by the immigration officials has shown them unfit to enter colleges here. They appealed to Ottawa, but officials there refused to intervene.

The shower that spoils a woman's Easter hat is a rash of terror.

Hope That Italy May Be Pacified

Paris. — There is a slight rift in the Italian cloud, which gives hope of the clearing of the difficulties that have arisen in the peace conference over the Adriatic problem. Overtures for the resumption of relations have not come thus far from either direction but there are intimations from Rome that overtures from Paris would not be unacceptable and would receive every attention.

The prevailing sentiment among the delegates is against isolating a return of the Italian plenipotentiaries and it was at first believed that President Wilson shared this opinion.

Those nearest the president, however, assert that if Italy is disposed to relinquish Fiume and accept the compromise the president suggested, he could doubtless, in the interest of harmony, make such friendly suggestions as would permit the resumption of negotiations by the Italians without any loss of dignity or self-esteem. These personal intimations are felt to be more of an obstacle at present than the territorial matters of the case.

Would Not Accept Bribes

Budapest. — Six hundred arrests have been made by the Soviet authorities, virtually every financier, publisher, editor, writer, manufacturer, and ex-minister of Hungary, who could be reached, being thrown into prison. More than thirty editors and newspaper owners, as well as a larger number of readers have been taken into custody, it is alleged, because they have refused to accept bribes to champion the Soviet cause.

Says Poles Plan Advance on Germany

Impossible for Government to Guarantee That Armistice Will Be Maintained

Berlin. — Matthias Erberger, chief of the German armistice delegation, in a note to Marshal Foch, made public in Berlin, says that Germany has reliable information that the Poles are planning in the next few days, an advance with large forces against German territory in Posen and upper Silesia. He adds that, therefore, it is impossible for the German government to guarantee that the armistice between Germany and Poland will be maintained if the Poles attack German territory.

After such an attack, the German government could not permit their passage through Germany from France of the Polish troops of Gen. Haller.

To Enforce Five Day Week

Seattle. — Official announcement that a five day week would be enforced commencing May 2 was made by the building trades council, representing approximately 6,000 workers in the immediate vicinity of Saturday and Sunday. The short week also will be put into effect in Tacoma and other northwest cities soon, it was said.

Want Wilson Back

St. Louis. — The chamber of commerce of the United States, representing half a million business men, unanimously adopted a resolution urging the immediate return of this country of President Wilson and an extraordinary session of congress to enact legislation necessary to safeguard our social and business structure.

Belgium Ask Financial Aid

Paris. — The Belgians have asked the council of three for a first advance of two billion francs on their share of German indemnity, according to French circles, and it appears that they have received definite and satisfactory assurances.

It is reported that there may be a public printing session of the conference to discuss the responsibility articles of the treaty.

DISORDERS IN PARIS

Demonstrations Aimed at Government in May Day Celebration

Paris. — Serious disorders occurred in Paris on the occasion of the celebration of May Day. French blood flowed in the streets of Paris and weapons that so lately had been used against the foe were turned against friends, brothers and sisters. Perilous efforts were made by the mobs to invade the Place de la Concorde and reach the chamber of deputies and the war ministry, where demonstrations had been planned. It was in these attempts that the casualties occurred. "Long live the Republic" was shouted at the Madeleine and in the Place de la Concorde as they surged toward the soldiers, and with pale, drawn faces, the infantry withdrew and allowed the mob to reach the Place de la Concorde against a wall of policemen and determined cavalry.

Albanian Revolt is Spreading

Rebels Have Force of Four Thousand Men

Sofia. — The revolt in Albania against the Italian troops of occupation is spreading wider and wider, according to advices to the Greek newspaper Thessalonika. The commander of the rebels is said to have a force of 4,000 men.

Some hundred Albanians, it is added, have sent a message to the peace conference denouncing Italian acts in Albania and affirming the conclusion that the Japanese demands must be satisfied. "Japan requires free disposition of Kiao-Chow with its treaty with China in 1915."

It will be left to the Chinese and Japanese governments to agree upon the conditions for carrying out the treaty of 1915 and the agreement made in 1918.

Will Not Wait for Italians

Conference Has Decided to Go Ahead With Treaties

Paris. — It is planned in peace conference circles to go ahead with the treaty of peace without regard to any action by Italy, as it is considered probable the Italian delegation will not return, certainly not within the week. The delivery of the treaty and the first exchanges with the Germans, therefore, will occur without the participation of Italy, and it is said that this procedure will go forward steadily up till the signing of the treaty. When the first reading of the German annexations occurs the pact will be presented.

A day or two will be given for questions concerning interpretation of different phases of the convention without, however, involving a prolonged discussion. The French view is that the German may ask for two weeks' delay to permit them to return to Weimar, with an additional week for discussion of the points of difference between the German and the temporary German capital. This is a matter of conjecture, however, as there is no precise information as to Germany's intentions.

Reports from Berlin are somewhat contradictory concerning Germany's purposes, as some reports indicate that an early signing of the treaty is probable, while others say that it is doubtful whether the pact will be signed at all. These reports, coming from different sources, indicate a lack of concerted attitude as to the treaty and show there is disposition to leave the decision largely with the German plenipotentiaries who are now at Versailles.

Trial of Ex- Kaiser

London. — The Evening Standard claims that it has the highest authority for asserting that the Kaiser, if he is to be prosecuted and tried, not as originator of the war, but as one of the instigators of crime, as provided in the report of the commission on war responsibility.

The local authorities have notified that a site one and one-half miles square on the lake shore would be required for the permanent home of the league, and several such sites have been offered by old families of Geneva.

The most powerful wireless station in the world will be constructed here, and also a huge airframe for diplomatic airplanes, all of which will be extra territorial. The local authorities are giving every assistance.

Japan Wins Out

Transfer of Shantung Peninsula To Japan Without Reserve

Is Likely

Paris. — The agreement regarding the Shantung peninsula and Kiao-Chow, which has been reached between the council of three and the Japanese delegates, provides for their transfer without reserve to Japan, which voluntarily engages to back the conclusion that the Japanese demands must be satisfied. "Japan requires free disposition of Kiao-Chow with its treaty with China in 1915."

It will be left to the Chinese and Japanese governments to agree upon the conditions for carrying out the treaty of 1915 and the agreement made in 1918.

Few Unemployed In Old Country

Large Numbers Have Been Absorbed by Peace Industries

London. — In defending the government's policy of donation to the unemployed, Sir Robert Stevenson, former minister of labor, in the house of commons said it was unnecessary to take a gloomy view of the unemployment question. Since the armistice, he said, four million persons have been demobilized from the army and naval forces and from civilian employment and one million remain unemployed. Eighty per cent of the demobilized soldiers, fifty per cent of the civilians and forty-five per cent of the civilians, have been absorbed by the peace industries.

This minister added, was a remarkable achievement when it was remembered that the central empire and Russia, which before the war had taken one-fourth of the British exports, were still closed in trade, and that China and New Zealand, which used to take another quarter, were virtually cut off owing to the shipping difficulties.

Japs Oppose Language Bill

Honolulu. — The foreign language school bill strongly opposed by Japanese, was tabled by the senate of the territorial legislature. The foreign language school bill provides that to obtain certificate teachers must show a knowledge of the English language, U.S. history and U.S. civics.

Japanese editors and educators declared passage of this bill would force Japanese language schools to close. The Japanese recently adopted resolutions demanding that efforts would be made for "Americanization" and urging the bill not be passed.

Opinions Differ Over Kiao-Chau Award

Premier Given Free Hand

Paris. — The French press, in commenting on the speech of Premier Orlando before the Italian parliament, finds a spirit of conciliation marking the address. As a result the newspapers express the conviction that a resumption of the conference over the Italian question will be possible and that ground for a satisfactory understanding may be found. Italy, it is pointed out, obviously intends to give Premier Orlando a free hand in dealing with his interests.

Rev. Ben Spence Pined

Toronto. — Rev. Ben Spence, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, Ontario branch, was convicted by Magistrate Kingford in the police court on charges of publishing libelous statements. "The Parable" and $500, or four months at the jail farm. W. E. Ransy, K.C., counsel for the defense, at once issued a writ of habeas corpus, and the magistrate allowed Mr. Spence a week to collect the money, if he decided to pay the fine.

A Complete Farm Home

This farm home is complete in every detail. It is designed to house the family and the hired help under the one roof, with separate conveniences for each. Attention may be drawn particularly to the two bathrooms. That feature of this attractive home will certainly have its appeal. The den shown on the left of the front entrance may very readily be used to advantage as an office by the greatest day business the farmer.

The slitting room, with its open fireplace, and the billiard room, sport and recreation. The beauty of the exterior of this bungalow style home deserves mention. The design has been worked up in brick or veneered exterior walls. The deep long veranda, approached by wide steps, is also worthy of note. Such details as a wash room, an empty large, lighted pantry, and a large bathroom have been taken care of by the architect.

Pan To Launch League Next Fall

Paris. — Plans for launching the league of nations were pretty definitely outlined at a luncheon which Col. M. H. House gave to Sir James Craig, the British ambassador, and other members of the league. Lord Robert Cecil, secretary of the league, said that the league would be launched at London during the conference.

Second. The inauguration of the league at Washington next October.

Third. The permanent establishment of the league at Geneva, which will be the headquarters of the league.

The preparatory details will begin the day after the signing of the treaty and will be in the hands of the committee designated by President Wilson's resolution before the last plenipotentiaries.

any session of the conference. Lord Robert Cecil, Col. House and the Greek premier, M. Venizelos, will be among the members.

Leon Bourgeois, the secretary general, will probably be the French member, as he does not speak English. Most of the proceedings will be in English and it is expected that only members of the committee will be chosen who speak that language.

Col. House, with a considerable staff, will remain in Paris after the conference closes and headquarters will be removed to London, which is expected to be the permanent headquarters of the league.

President Wilson will fix the date of the first meeting and ask the nations to nominate three delegates to attend the inaugural gathering at Washington.

Same old front gate, same old lawn,
Same old cow barn painted red,
Same old track pile in the shed,
Same old pump at the kitchen sink,
Same old water to get a drink,

Pathetic Funeral

The funeral of Ignatius Wozick, who was drowned a month ago, took place last Wednesday at the Catholic cemetery near Bow Island, a large number of people attended to show their respect and sympathy.

Mass was sung at St. Michael's Church on Thursday morning for him. The Rev. Father McCoy officiated. It may be recalled that deceased was drowned along with Harry Arblaster and Peter Johnstone while going across the river in a boat loaded with jacks, which swung round and then capsized, owing to the force of the gale blowing at that time; the deepest sympathy is felt for the families and also for these unfortunate men who we understand were working under orders. All the oldtimers knew him as Jack Wychnik.
